5 p.m. – 6 p.m. Coates Lecture: The Speaker Ban through Student Eyes

We are invited to join the Friends of the Library as one of our own, Bob Spearman ('65), former UNC Student Body President, recalls student efforts to repeal the Speaker Ban law. State lawmakers' passage of the ban in June 1963 prevented campus speeches by known members of the Communist Party and individuals who had invoked their Fifth Amendment rights in Congressional investigations of Communist activities. Students took a stand against the ban. Spearman, now a Raleigh attorney, testified before a state commission tasked with revising the law. This optional event begins with a reception and viewing of the exhibit "A Right to Speak and to Hear: Academic Freedom and Freedom of Expression at UNC," in the North Carolina Gallery of Wilson Library. It will be followed by a 5:30 p.m. presentation in the Pleasants Family Assembly Room of Wilson Library. The event is sponsored by the North Carolina Collection and University Archives.
